A SAD DEATH.

Gec. Patten, an inmate of the insane asylum, died at that institution today. The cause of the young man's mental condition as well as his death is due to a so-called practical joke perpe-trated upon him by friends during the isit of Governor Roosevelt recently o Salt Lake City. Patten was about 29 years of age, and lived at Manti. Sampete county, and with a number of Sampete boys, went to Salt Lake to participate in the "Rough Riders" parade in honor of Governor Roosevelt. Patten was a man who never drank into yearing liquors, and had the representations liquors, and had the representations liquors, and had the representations liquors. intoxicating liquors, and had the reputation of being a very moral young man. His companions knowing these conditions, twitted him a great deal, and Patten finally commenced to drink a little with them to stop their making fun of him. His companions then took him around to "do the town," and most of the dives of the city were visited during the night. When Pattan recovered from the effects of the liquor, he felt that he had disgraced himself as well as his family, and being of a very sensitive nature, the affair preyed greatly upon his mind, and he became very remorseful, and then a raving maniac, and was committed to the State insane asylum about a week ago, and continued to grow worse until today, when he died.

His father, John Patten, arrived in Provo this afternoon, and will take the remains to Manti for burial.

SOLD CIDER TO INDIANS. Sheriff Storrs Saturday afternoon arrested Jack Shelley of American Fork, on a complaint charging him with selling cider to Indians. The arrest was caused by a number of Indians being drunk and annoying people. His hearing will take place October 9th, before Justice McNiell of American Fork. In the meantime the defendant will be liberated on his own recognizance, Three Days of Snow - Accused of a Horrible Crime. Special Correspondence.

Afton, Uinta Co., Wyo., Sept. 28.r without any rain our valley has sud-ienly been clothed in white. On the evening of September 23rd the horizon uddenly took on a grave aspect, and the beautiful white commenced to fall, and for three days it was snow and sleet, but the dry ground absorbed it almost as fast as it came. We now have fine weather again, but our mountains are covered with snow.

HORRIBLE CRIME.

One of the most horrifying crimes that can be committed has lately been brought to light in the valley. The in-formation, sworn to by Osborn Lowe, charges one Melvin Henderson, with and continued incest with eldest daughter for a period of five years; also attempted rape on a younger daughter. The accused was arrested and placed under $3,000 bonds to appear for trial at Evanston Septemer 17th, but his wife and daughters, tho are his accusers and the main witnesses for the prosecution, suddenly left the State, and failed to appear against him. His case was continued until next term of court.

MUST DIP BEFORE SHIPPING. Some of our local sheep men recent-ly met with quite a severe setback. Af-ter driving their sheep for a distance of fifty miles and loading some of them on the cars for transportation to the Chicago market, the government sheep inspector detected some scab amongst them with the result that every one was turned back with instructions to dip before they could ship. The loss will be felt quite severely by our sheep men, as they will have to hold their sheep about two weeks and with the present storm and poor feed on the range they are bound to loose flesh and decrease in varieties. decrease in value.
